

Seeking legislative control of problem hedges and trees.

Please complete the form below and return to:-

Marina Imlah,
Membership Secretary,
Address: 'Dunellen', Springwood Terrace, Peebles, EH45 9ET,
(cheques made payable to "HEDGELINE" please)

I enclose subscription of £5.00 for the current year.

Or a reduced subscription of £2.00 for members on a really low income

I am also able to enclose a donation of £ towards the cost of the campaign.

Name

Address.....

...

Address.....

Post Town.....

County.....

Post Code.....

Telephone:.....

E-mail.....

Scothedge is a voluntary organisation and part of the national Hedgeline group which has successfully campaigned for the English and Welsh High Hedges legislation.

In Scotland there is still no legislation to protect residents against careless or vindictive deployment of unsuitable hedges. The first two Parliaments at Holyrood supported the Scott Barrie Private Member's Bill which never progressed.

Scothedge are now working in agreement with the Scottish Government who are now committed to a solution of the issue.